Mr. Arbaugh,

I have copied the Director of School Finance on this email, in the event I've misunderstood the data. His office is responsible for generating these data.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact him.

The average of total expenditure per pupil for public districts is $10,110.72.

The average expenditure per pupil for community schools is $9,064. When broken out:
For e-schools it's $7,027. For non-eschool community schools it's $10,165.

Eric/Jim: if I have misinterpreted the report, please provide the correct data.

Thanks,

Jeanine
